	17.03.2003 Shri Awadh Tripathi, Counsel for the Petitioner. State by Shri Ranbir Singh, Government Advocate on advance copy. By this writ petition filed under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India, the petitioners pray for a direction commanding respondents to make payment of pension and gratuity to petitioner no.1and providing compassionate appointment to petitioner no.2. It is stated that one Ramesh Kumar Rawat, husband of petitioner no.1 and father of petitioner no.2 was working with respondents and he died on 13.1.2001 while in service. It is submitted that after death of her husband she has not received the gratuity and pension and in spite of representations, her case has not yet been decided. It is further submitted that petitioner no.2 who is son of the deceased employee applied for grant of compensate appointment, but the authorities have not issued any order. Having thus considered the facts and circumstances of the case, material on record and since the matter relates to the payment of pension, gratuity and further providing compassionate appointment to the son of deceased employee, it is directed that the petitioners shall make representation
